Vision Australia Library offers a free national library service for people who are blind, have low vision or have difficulty reading standard printed material for other reasons including dyslexia. We work to ensure that through innovation, advocacy and empowerment those with a print disability can enjoy the same access to information and recreational reading as others in the community.

- ♦ The Library offers members a wide range of accessible materials from a variety of sources. Materials can be streamed or downloaded from our online catalogue.
- ♦ The Library Service circulates titles in braille and DAISY audio. DAISY is an audio format that has been developed to build "structure" into a book. This enables readers to navigate to find specific chapters and pages of an electronic book at the press of a button. The Library collection also features audio books in different languages, a large braille library, and the latest magazines and regional newspapers from our download service. The Felix Library offers early tactile and braille literacy kits for young children. Professional staff assist members using smartphones, tablets or a range of accessible players to access the library collection.
- ♦ Vision Australia offers advice about making information accessible to individuals, businesses, education providers, government bodies and community organisations.

Vision Australia also offer consultancy services on how to make websites accessible and signage and wayfinding for buildings and outdoor environments.

Core library services include:

1. A free public library service, which includes a wide range of print alternative books and magazines available loan through streaming download or physical loans. The Kooyong site has PC's with adaptive technology suitable for people with a print disability.
2. The public library service includes a reference service to assist clients navigate and find information.
3. A range of accessible programs to promote reading and learning.

Municipal Association of Victoria (MAV)

The Municipal Association of Victoria (MAV) was formed in 1879 and has a statutory responsibility to act as the representative voice of local government in Victoria through the establishment of the Municipal Association Act 1907.

As the peak body for local government, councils' interests and rights are represented and protected through membership of the MAV. All 79 Victorian municipal councils are eligible to be MAV members.

MAV Purpose

The purpose of the MAV is defined under the Municipal Association of Victoria Act 1907 and states:

The Municipal Association of Victoria was established to promote the efficient carrying out of municipal government throughout the State of Victoria and to watch over and protect the interests, rights and privileges of municipal corporations. (Municipal Association Act, 1907)

The MAV Strategy 2021-25 sets out the key activities the MAV will undertake to achieve strategic outcomes for the local government sector. They fall under six key themes:

- Economically sound councils
- Healthy, diverse and thriving communities
- Well-planned, connected and resilient built environment
- Changing climate and a circular economy
- Sector capability and good governance
- Effective and responsive MAV

This Strategy was developed in collaboration with Victoria's 79 council. It was endorsed at the MAV State Council held in May 2021.

Our history

Established in 1854 as the Melbourne Public Library, State Library Victoria is Australia's oldest public library and one of the first free public libraries in the world.

Our founders believed that access to knowledge was critical for the development of a civil and prosperous community, and created the Library as 'the people's university' – a place of learning and discovery for all Victorians. They also charged the Library with preserving Victoria's heritage by collecting items of historical and cultural significance for future generations.

These are responsibilities that remain a critical focus today. Each year we add more than 70,000 heritage items to the Library's rich collection and lead the sector with our ambitious digitisation programs. We also work hard to adapt and remain relevant to our Library users, as well as reach out to new audiences. As a result, Library patronage has continued to increase annually, both in-person and online.

Our vision

We want the Library to be a place for all in a changing world and to inspire possibilities. We want to be a cultural and heritage destination for Victorians, and a catalyst for generating new knowledge and ideas.

The State Library will make a major contribution to the continuing development of a knowledge and creativity-based economy for Victoria, and a socially and culturally rich society.

Mechanics' Institutes are the fore runners of public libraries and adult education in Australia

The Mechanics' Institute Movement began in 1799 when Dr George Birkbeck conducted a series of free lectures for the workingmen of Glasgow. The term "mechanic" at that time meant artisan or workingman. The movement spread throughout Britain and its colonies including Canada South Africa, India and Australia, as well as the United States of America.

The Movement began in Victoria with the formation of the Melbourne Athenaeum in 1839. The Institutes served as focal points for their communities, offering libraries and reading rooms, opportunities for self-education, and other attractions such as lectures, meeting rooms, museums, concerts, and various games. Institute libraries were regularly patronised up until the 1950's even though conducted on a subscription basis. The book stock varied with the finances of the Institute committee but where towns were serviced by railways, cases of books could be obtained quarterly on loan from the Melbourne Public Library.

Nearly every town in Victoria had a Mechanics' Institute. Today there are over 500 still operating as halls and homes for local organisations. A growing number of these are members of the Mechanics' Institutes of Victoria Inc. (est. 1998).

Eleven Mechanics' Institutes continue to principally offer a lending service and half a dozen have retained a significant proportion of their historical library collections.
