Mitchell Shire Council is located approximately 60 km north of the Melbourne Central Business District and is bounded by Hume and Whittlesea councils to the south. The southern tip has experienced significant residential growth in recent years due to affordable new housing and infrastructure to support an easy commute to Melbourne. Most of the shire consists of rural land. The local economy is primarily agriculture and food manufacturing. It covers an area of 2,864 square km with an estimated population of approximately 43,000 in 2017, which is expected to grow to about 82,000 by 2031.

WALLAN YOUTH SERVICES HUB
119 Wellington Street, Wallan 3756

Background: The Growing Suburbs Fund will partner with Mitchell Shire Council to redevelop an unused Council building into a dedicated Youth Services Hub in the heart of Wallan township. The hub will deliver and facilitate the co-location of best-practice youth mental health services and develop a range of health and well-being services to better support the rapidly expanding number of at risk youth in Mitchell Shire.

The redevelopment project will transform the existing building into an integrated and contemporary youth service hub. Works will include:

- 3 Youth Program Rooms
- 3 Multiuse office space
- Storage facilities
- Open plan kitchen
- Landscaped passive open space, seating and shade
- Modern reception and waiting area
- Accessible and ambulant toilet facilities.
