The Growing Suburbs Fund is a contribution towards meeting critical local infrastructure needs for communities in Melbourne’s diverse and fast-growing outer suburbs. It is positioned to quickly respond to the pressures being experienced by interface communities by bringing forward local infrastructure projects that will make a big difference in the day-to-day lives of outer suburban families.

Diamond Creek Regional Park Playspace

Diamond Creek Regional Reserve – east of Watkins Street, Diamond Creek

Background: The Growing Suburbs Fund will help Nillumbik Shire Council develop a playspace comprised of 5 interconnected play zones at the Diamond Creek Regional Reserve to address a gap in the provision of playspaces in Nillumbik, in particular the catchment of Diamond Creek.

The project will deliver a play and recreation space comprising a series of integrated play and activity ‘zones’ located in the Diamond Creek Reserve. As well as a range of playspace zones catering for different ages, abilities and interests, the project will include picnic/social areas, BBQs, toilets, pathways and signage.

Expected date of commencement: September 2019
Expected date of completion: late 2020

Total Project Cost: $2,700,000
Growing Suburbs Fund: $2,500,000
Other contributions:
- Nillumbik Shire Council contributes $175,000
- In-Kind Contributions of $25,000

Nillumbik Shire Council is located 25 km North-east of the Melbourne Central Business District, and the southern boundary is the Yarra River. It is predominantly urban to the South while the north of the municipality includes significant features like the Kinglake National Park and Sugarloaf Reservoir.

In 2017, Nillumbik Shire recorded an annual resident population growth rate of 0.7 per cent, of 65,000 residents. The population is forecasted to grow to 68,000, by 4 per cent, by 2031.

Other projects in Nillumbik Shire Council to receive funding from the 2018/19 Growing Suburbs Fund are:

- Eltham North Adventure Playground Enhancement ($569,641)
- Greensborough Hockey Multi-Purpose Pavilion Redevelopment ($2,000,000)

Nillumbik Shire Council will receive a total of $5,069,641 for three projects under the Growing Suburbs Fund 2018-19 Round.

Growing Suburbs Fund contributes to a mix of infrastructure projects that have a direct benefit to communities living in the outer suburbs.
